A Retrospect.

THE HAWAIIAN GAZETTE has now reached its thirty-seventh volume. It has been a long and successful career, and we are glad to see it continue to prosper. The paper has been a constant source of information and amusement to the Hawaiian people, and we trust it will continue to be so for many years to come. The editor, T. Crawford Macdowell, has done his duty well, and we are sure that the paper will continue to be a valuable asset to the community.
